

PROGRAMS FOR 2017 KERSHAW COUNTY MASTER GARDENERS

January 9

Bobbi Adams, KCMG, SMG, emeritus presenter

- Camellia care.

February 6

Emily Syrewicze, JD, executive director, Catawba/Wateree River shed

- Human impact on scenic rivers.

March 6

T. J. Saverino, Senior Associate Agent, Natural Resources, Clemson wildlife biologist

- Snakes. Friends or foes?

April 3

Julie Trott, hospice nurse, KCMG

- Mosquito control and female mosquitoes as vectors of diseases.

May 1

Carol Boyd, SMG, member of Sumter Herb Society

- Herbs. This will include tastings and recipes.

June 5

Tony Melton, fruit and vegetable specialist from Clemson

- Fall Vegetable Gardening.

July – No Meeting

August 7

Rebecca Turk, horticulturist, Moore Farms

- “The Coolness of Shade”

September 11 (First Monday is Labor Day.)

Kristin Dodson, horticulturist, landscape designer

- Designs for a butterfly garden.

October 2

Bobbi Adams, KCMG, SMG Emeritus

- Collecting and drying flowers in preparation for November meeting.

November 6

Jennifer McCutchen, Director East Sandhills Garden Club of South Carolina

- wreath making for the holidays
 - A grapevine wreath will be provided

December – No meeting.

- Christmas party